

Care Like a Mouse, Chapter Three – Behavior Priorities, Table 3-3, Leader Behavior Priorities Worksheet

Behavior Priorities describe the values leaders and employees are expected to demonstrate.

This worksheet will help you develop specific standards of behavior for your leaders.

Step One – List all the words that describe the behaviors you expect from your leaders (IE- Positivity, Knowledge, Accountability, etc.)

The Behaviors our leaders should demonstrate are ...

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Step Two – Circle the three or four key words that most effectively encompass all the aspects of the standards of behavior your leaders should deliver.

Step Three – List each of those words and identify specific actions that provide definition of how leaders should demonstrate those behaviors.

Behavior One: _____.

- Action One: _____.
- Action Two: _____.
- Action Three _____.
- Action Four _____.
- Action Five _____.

Care Like a Mouse, Chapter Three – Behavioral Priorities, Table 3-3, Leader Behavior Priorities Worksheet

Behavior Two: _____.

- Action One: _____.
- Action Two: _____.
- Action Three _____.
- Action Four _____.
- Action Five _____.

Behavior Three: _____.

- Action One: _____.
- Action Two: _____.
- Action Three _____.
- Action Four _____.
- Action Five _____.

Behavior Four: _____.

- Action One: _____.
- Action Two: _____.
- Action Three _____.
- Action Four _____.
- Action Five _____.

Care Like a Mouse, Chapter Three – Behavioral Priorities, Table 3-3, Leader Behavior Priorities Worksheet

Step Four – Think of different workplace scenarios that are likely to occur and verify that the order of the selected words and phrases accurately reflect the behaviors leaders should demonstrate in response.

NOTE – INVOLVE MEMBERS OF YOUR ORGANIZATION AT ALL LEVELS IN EVERY STEP OF THE PROCESS AND YOU WILL GAIN TEAM BUY-IN AND OBTAIN A BETTER RESULT.